Privacy Policy Lakota Water Company is a subsidiary of Rossing's, Inc., a corporation established in 2002 for the purpose of meeting residential and commercial water treatment needs and specializing in the installation of rainwater collection systems. Lakota Water Company respects your right to privacy protection while using this website. We have created this privacy policy in order to explain what information we gather from your visit to this website and how such information may be used.

1. COLLECTION AND USE OF INFORMATION

As a general policy, Lakota Water Company does not request or collect personally-identifiable information on this website. However, if you wish to obtain additional information about water treatment services or rainwater collection installation or services, you will be asked to provide certain personal contact information (such as your name, email address, telephone and facsimile number, etc.) in order to process your request. Such information is intended only for Lakota Water Company use.

Lakota Water Company will not give, sell, or otherwise transfer email addresses supplied to this site to any other party for the purposes of initiating, or enabling others to initiate, electronic mail messages.

2. LINKS TO OTHER SITES

This website offers links to other websites that may collect personally-identifiable information. Your use of, and provision of personally-identifiable information to, such other sites are subject to the terms of use and privacy policies of such other sites. Lakota Water Company is not responsible for the privacy policies and practices or content of such sites.

3. COMPUTER TRACKING AND COOKIES

Our website is not set up to track, collect or distribute personal information not entered by visitors. Our site logs do generate certain kinds of non-identifying site usage data, such as the number of hits and visits to our sites. This information is used for internal purposes by technical support staff to provide better services to the public and may also be provided to others, but again, the statistics contain no personal information about you and cannot be used to gather such information.

A cookie is a small amount of data that is sent to your browser from a Web server and stored on your computer's hard drive. Lakota Water Company uses non-identifying cookies to provide easier site navigation and access to forms. You can still use the Lakota Water Company site if your browser is set to reject cookies. Our cookies do not generate personal data, do not read personal data from your machine and are never tied to anything that could be used to identify you.

4. REVISION OF THIS POLICY

Lakota Water Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to modify, alter, or otherwise revise this Privacy Policy at any time without notice and you agree to be bound by such modifications, alterations, and revisions. Notification of revisions is limited to the actual posting of the revised Privacy Policy on this site.
